

Neuro-Resource Facilitation

Looking for resources and supports dealing with brain injury?

There is a service in Iowa dedicated to helping Iowans with brain injury choose, get, and keep needed services and supports. Neuro-Resource Facilitation (NRF) is a free service through the Brain Injury Alliance of Iowa that helps people with brain injury, their families, caregivers, and professionals find answers to their questions while providing ongoing follow up to assess needs.

Areas we can help survivors and caregivers navigate

What to expect following a brain injury

Locating professionals who can help

Local, state, and federal service systems

Available resources in your area

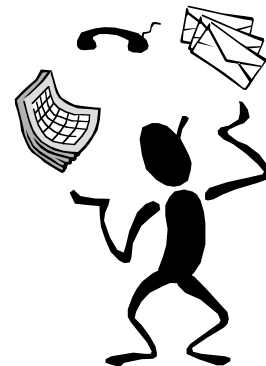

Connecting to support groups

Areas we can help professionals navigate

Case Consultations to provide support during challenges

Local, regional, and statewide training opportunities

Free Informational Webinars

And MORE!

Connect with us!

855-444-6443 or info@biaia.org