

BRAIN INJURY RESOURCE FACILITATION (BIRF)

Looking for resources and supports related to brain injury?

There is a service in Iowa dedicated to helping Iowans with brain injury choose, get, and keep needed services and supports. Brain Injury Resource Facilitation is a fee-free service through the Brain Injury Association of Iowa that helps people with brain injury, their families, caregivers, and professionals find answers to their questions while providing ongoing follow-up to assess needs.

ABOUT BRAIN INJURY RESOURCE FACILITATION (BIRF)

Brain Injury Resource Facilitation is a fee-free service available to Iowans affected by brain injury. It provides a minimum of 2 years of phone-based support as needed. This program is designed to assist individuals and family members in getting access to information and work towards goals for living better with brain injury.

CASE CONSULTATIONS

To provide support to individuals with brain injury and the professionals that deliver services to them

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

Educational events available locally, regionally, and statewide for both caregivers and professionals

WEBINARS

Free informational webinars that are available on a wide variety of topics related to brain injury

WHY CONTACT US?

- Discussion about what to expect following a brain injury
- Assistance locating professionals who can help
- Review local, state, and federal service systems
- Referrals to available resources in your area
- Connect individuals to local support groups

(855) 444-6443 | WWW.BIAIA.ORG | INFO@BIAIA.ORG

The content in this document is from the Brain Injury Association of Iowa and funded through the Brain Injury Services Program (BISP) of Iowa, through contract 5883BI06 with the Iowa Department of Health and Human Services.

Version date July 2025